AHB's Fall Camerata

A Blues Celebration

BAINBRIDGE ISLAND – Join Arts & Humanities Bainbridge October 15th at 4:00 PM as we welcome the arrival of fall with another musical celebration. In a twist on the classic Camerata, which in the Renaissance Italian tradition presented small chamber orchestra or choir performances, we're dedicating the upcoming event to the Blues!

The fundraiser concert will feature island favorites Mark Hoffman, Jeremy Rothbaum, and Brent Grossman performing together as "The Rolling Bay Stones." The trio will play original Blues music in two evening sets at Rolling Bay Hall.

Tickets are $60. In addition to fine Blues music, the event will include a southern-style menu, as well as wine from Rolling Bay Winery and beer from Bainbridge Island Brewing Company. Proceeds from the Camerata benefit AHB's mission "to create an environment on Bainbridge Island in which the arts and humanities flourish."

Doors open at 4:00 PM; music plays from 5:00 to 7:00 PM.

About Arts & Humanities Bainbridge: AHB is a self-sustaining non-profit organization serving artists, educators, and cultural organizations as the nexus of all things artistic on Bainbridge Island, connecting young people to 21st century ways of learning through powerful arts education, and shining a bright light on creative individuals through public events, awards and promotion.
