FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AHB Announces Online Art Marketplace

BAINBRIDGE ISLAND, WA – Arts & Humanities Bainbridge (AHB) is proud to announce it's new online Marketplace, just in time for the holiday season. The art marketplace is a vehicle to further support artists and artisans who live or engage artistically on Bainbridge Island and neighboring communities and help them to pursue their livelihoods while enriching the cultural life on Bainbridge Island.

The online art marketplace can be found on the Currents website (currentsonline.org) and features a broad array of artistic endeavors including watercolor and oil paintings, multi-media collage, glass and metal sculptures, hand crafted fiber arts, and so much more. During this difficult and Isolating time, it can be difficult to find uniquely crafted gifts and support our local economy. The art marketplace is a way to keep us all safe while sustaining our local artists during this holiday season.

AHB is thrilled to offer this artist-centric shopping experience for the mutual benefit of local artists, artisans and our island community.

Give a gift to a friend, a loved one, or maybe something just for yourself! Add something unique to your home or office AND support local artists!

About AHB: Arts & Humanities Bainbridge is a 501 (c) non-profit organization whose mission is to connect you to the abundance of creativity in our community to empower and inspire. The organization brings art to shared public spaces through its Public Art Committee, funded by the City of Bainbridge Island. It places teaching artists in local public school classrooms through its Arts in Education program. It hosts Currents Online – currentsonline.org- the community cultural platform that makes the rich world of island arts and culture easily accessible. More information about AHB can be found at ahb-bainbridge.org.
