Something New IV People's Choice Award Winner & Ceremony

BAINBRIDGE ISLAND, WA - Arts & Humanities Bainbridge (AHB) is pleased to announce that Jennifer Kuhns is this year's Something New IV People's Choice Award winner! Join us on May 13 in front of Town & Country Market to honor her.

The winning artist, Public Art Committee chair, Steve Rabago, and AHB's executive director, Inez Maubane Jones, will each make a few remarks and Jennifer will be presented with a $1000 check and a letter from the City Manager, Blair King.

"Thank you so much for the great news! I'm so thrilled!" said winner, Jennifer Kuhns.

Located in front of the Town & Country Market, Jennifer Kuhn's Fertility is a mosaic encrusted terracotta egg with numerous colorful symbols of springtime and fecundity.

Something New is the annual rotating sculpture exhibition in Winslow made possible by the partnership between AHB and the City through the Public Art Committee that brings public art into shared spaces.

About AHB: Arts & Humanities Bainbridge is a 501 (c) non-profit organization whose mission is to connect you to the abundance of creativity in our community, to empower and inspire. The organization bridges art and business through the Bainbridge Creative District. It brings art to shared public spaces through its Public Art Committee funded by the City of Bainbridge Island; runs an Arts in Education program; and hosts Currents – bainbridgecurrents.com - the community cultural website that makes the rich world of island arts and culture easily accessible. More information can be found at ahbainbridge.org.
